

The information contained herein is subject to change without notice, including, without limitation, size of development, homeowner's fees and configuration of lots, structures, roads, recreational areas and amenities.

Here, at the foothills of Lost Mountain in West Cobb County, is a find that is rare indeed. Expansive, one-acre plus lots. The homesites at Arvida's Lost Creek provide exceptional privacy and plenty of room to spread out and enjoy the beautiful countryside.

Lost Creek continues the Arvida tradition of creating a quality lifestyle for homeowners. An Olympic-style pool, two lighted tennis courts and a jogging trail that winds its way along Lost Creek are here for the entire family to enjoy. At completion of sales, homeowners will enjoy exclusive use of the log cabin clubhouse which features an exercise room with Nautilus equipment. All community property and amenities are supported by a homeowners association in which membership is required.

The homes in Lost Creek are designed and constructed to Arvida's strict architectural standards by a select team of builders. They feature a wide range of designs including traditional, stucco, European and Cape Cod.

We invite you to visit our community off Due West Road in Marietta, or call our sales office at 426-1620. Come see how Arvida's details can make the difference in your new home at Lost Creek.